CIRCUS STANDED IN RAILROAD YARDS SINCE FRIDAY

The Barton & Bailey circus is still floundering on the financial rocks in Ogden, and the breakers appear to be getting greater as each day passes. Attachments were filed against the company Friday night, since which time the circus train has been held in the railroad yards.

The original claims against the company amounted to only about $300, but they were augmented today by about $2,500, making the total about $2,800. Aside from this, it is said, the parties did not have enough money to pay transportation out of the city. The claims filed today were for wages due professional employees of the show which were assigned to Hugh McCullough, who filed a complaint against Thomas F. Weidemann, manager, John A. Barton, Sue Barton, Harry Bailey and Mike Kahn, as co-partners, and W. P. Hall. The latter, it is claimed, is the owner of the show and the co-partners are the lessees.

It was said by members of the party Saturday that their affairs would be satisfactorily settled during the afternoon and that the show would move on in the evening. Their expectations failed to materialize, however, and the show remained in the yards. The darkened clouds began to clear away yesterday morning and it was planned to "get out" at the noon hour. Disappointment blasted their expectations and soon after noon, the men were put to work pitching tents for the stock in the railroad yards. Since that time the horses and other animals have been cared for and ample food has been provided, members of the company having sufficient personal means to purchase the necessary provisions. The kitchen and dining room tents were also pitched and regular meals have been served the small army of attendants. Breakfast was served this morning at about 9 o'clock and dinner was given at the regular time.

The employees do not exhibit any great degree of impatience at the delay, but they insist on being paid their salaries. They say they will be ready to resume their services with the circus and proceed to fill all engagements. Lessees and employees state that the big boss, Mr. Hall, will arrive from Lancaster, Missouri, this afternoon, when it is confidently expected, he will settle all the accounts pay for the transportation, and send the company on its way rejoicing.

Earle Williams and Anita Stewart, Alhambra tomorrow.

NEW TEACHERS ARE ENGAGED FOR THE ACADEMY

The 1914-15 term of instruction at the Weber academy was officially closed at noon today, following the final student body assembly. At the assembly, the principal order of business carried out was the sustaining of the Acorn staff for next year, as named by the board of control. The personnel of the staff is to be as follows:

Irene Scoville, editor; Cornelius Sander, business manager; Vera Bailey, exchange editor; Iona Jensen, school notes; Victor Critchlow, athletic sports editor. The staff will choose the subordinate officers at the opening of the 1915-16 term.

The announcement was made during the session that the school catalogue for next year would be ready for distribution in about three weeks. Two new faces will be seen in the faculty group, those of Katherine McKee, who will be an instructor in the English department, and Prof. T. ## Chicago Grain

Chicago, May 24.—Although Italy's declaration of war tended to favor the bear side of the wheat market today, the effect seemed to have been largely discounted in advance. Selling did not assume unusual proportions. On the other hand bullish crop reports from Missouri formed something of an offset. After opening at 1-14 to 7-8c lower, the market rallied quite sharply, but soon underwent a sag.

Blue weather eased the corn market. Trucks in the price of wheat counted also in bringing about a decline. Opening prices, which varied from 1-14@1-12c lower, were followed by a moderate further setback. Oats felt the influence of excellent field conditions. Offerings, though, were not heavy.

Provisions held steady despite lower quotations for hogs. There seemed to be no pressure from holders. In later transactions the May wheat delivery became congested, but the deferred months remained weak. The close was nervous at the same as Saturday night to 3-4c lower.

Smallness of country corn offerings led afterward to a rally. The close was firm 1-8 at 1-4 to 3-4c above Saturday night.

SWEDEN URGED TO ENTER WAR

London, May 24, 3:45 p. m.—A message to the Exchange Telegraph company from Copenhagen says pamphlets are being distributed throughout Sweden to further a movement for the intervention of that country in the war against Russia.

These pamphlets urge that Sweden step in at once to secure the independence of Finland by an attack on Russia or by other means.
